

Alrighty. Good afternoon, everybody. Welcome to the Booker T. Washington Go Team meeting. My name is Nicole Riggins. I am the Booker T. Washington Go Team Chair. And at this time, I would like to call roll.

We are in hybrid situation. So those that are here present in the building with me would be myself, Ms. Tierra Cahill,

Ms. Nicole Shabazz, and Ms. Nikoya Garlington.

And virtually, it looks like we have Principal Wade.

I believe this is Lolita Washington. We have Diane Foy. We have Anaya Terry. And we have Mr. Rob Malloy, our swing seat.

That's Dionne. That's Dionne Foy. At this time, hold on, Mr. Wade. He shouldn't be talking right now. Hold on one second, Mr. Wade. I got you. Because there's an echo going on. So I'm trying to get through this so we can officially start and then you can talk, Mr. Wade, and it won't have that ridiculous backwards echo. But Mr. Wade is muted.

So for the purposes of this, Ms. Huss, with today's meeting, would you mind filling in as our secretary because we do not have a secretary today?

Thank you.

The smile you saw was her indicating yes.

So at this point, it looks like we do have quorum. So I'd like to go over the norms.

Yes, Ms. Russell, we see you.

For the purposes of the norms, this meeting is for the GO Team members. Only those on the GO Team would be able to speak in this meeting. And we also have Cornelius Kemp.

So those would be the only people that are able to speak in this meeting and to vote. Anyone else present, we are asking that they quietly observe the meeting and would be speaking in our public comments portion. Once that option is out, we get to that point of the meeting. So our first order of business now that we have called roll and we have established that we have quorum is to approve the previous meeting summaries and minutes. Those were emailed to everybody previous to this meeting. So may I have a motion to approve the minute the previous meeting minutes and summaries?

Motion.

So we have a motion from Tierra. And we have a second from Ms. Sequoia Garlington.

And some back up or vote now all in favor of approving the previous meeting minutes and summaries please say aye. Aye.

Any opposed? Aye.

You have a question about the minutes. Okay. What's the question, Ms. Russell?

Ms. Russell says she can't unmute.

She's in the chat. She can't unmute.

We're waiting on Ms. Russell to type her question in the chat for the question about the minutes before we proceed.

Okay.

Okay, I don't see the question.

Why can't you unmute? I don't know. We're asking you to unmute.

We just sent a message. We just sent you a request. You should be able to click it. It says asked to unmute.

You said it didn't work.

Ms. Russell, do you want to go out and come back in and maybe see if that'll work? I'm not sure why it didn't let you.

All right. Give us one moment, Mr. Bass.

Sorry, Ms. Russell just came back in.

Oh, hello.

Can you hear me? Yes. Hi, Ms. Russell. Hi. Hi, everybody. Sorry about that. But anyway, thank you. Good evening, everyone. I just had one question about the previous minutes. There was a discussion in there about academic achievements and about overall test scores increasing from 91% to 94%. I don't remember that discussion. Maybe I was late, but I'm more interested in knowing what those fabulous test scores represent.

I don't remember us talking about that. Yeah, we did. What are they?

They're in one of the presentations.

I don't remember which it was that it was, which meeting that was. Yeah, because it says the meeting before last. So it's the meeting before last. It says our overall test scores increased to 94%. Yeah, it was the meeting before last that we had that discussion.

I would.

What was the test scores?

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no. I remember that conversation. I cannot. Can you hear me? Can everyone hear me? Yes, we can hear you.

Who took the minutes?

The A.I. took the minutes for that one.

Yeah, but so. So I dance with these. I dance around that presentation. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Each grade and Miss. Miss Riggins, Miss Riggins, is it a delay on my voice? Can you hear me? It's a delay for everybody. Oh, yeah. Well, I want, I want to, I want to ask, I want to answer Mr. Russell's question. 90, 91 and 94. You know, I deal with these numbers every day. They live in my head. That number.

That number is attached to teacher attendance, not test scores.

Okay, well, that should be corrected in the minutes. Yes, that's because we improve. Yeah, it says student achievement test scores.

So that's. Yeah.

That's why I don't recall because that's. Not accurate. Okay. And Miss, and Miss Riggins and Miss Huff. You said A.I. is taking our minutes. Yeah, because we don't have a secretary and I'm not that person. So the suggestion was to use A.I. by the go team. The go team office to take the minutes because our secretary has not. She was actually replaced. That's where Miss Sequoia Garlington came into play. But that took that seat. So we never, we didn't have replaced that person with a secretary. So the A.I. is what came into that.

Which was a suggestion of the go team. So we have been using that to collect the meeting minutes. I think that's okay. But if we do that, obviously, we need to make sure that we review them and ensure their accuracy. Because that's a that is not an inconsequential error.

Correct. I do agree. So that's so we will have to make those corrections. So in the interim, since what we will do is allow. We'll just table the approval of the meeting minutes until everybody can review them. And because there's no way that we can do that today. Yeah. Okay.

So may I have a motion to table approval of the meeting minutes to our next meeting?

So moved.

I may have a second.

Second. Second. All in favor of moving the approval of the meeting minutes to the next meeting. Please say I. I am all opposed, please say nay.

All of opposed.

All right. So we'll table that the motion has kicked.

Did everybody get a chance to look at the meeting agenda?

So may I have a motion to approve the current meeting agenda has been submitted to everybody, please.

Okay, I have a motion by Mr.

Garlington, may I have a second?

I second the motion.

Thank you, Miss boy. And then all in favor of approving the agenda as it has been sent to everybody, please say aye.

Please say nay.

And all. So that looks like the emotion has carried.

All righty. So at this point, we are at our first.

All right.

All righty. So at this point, we are at point of presentations. So Mr. Wade, I will turn it over to you. There is a delay everybody and I do apologize. So we're going to mute on this end.

So Mr. Wade can go ahead and present and then we will also share the presentation as it has been prepared. We have two presentations it's going to be it's in the same slide but it's two portions of that presentation for the budget. So we're going to go through the budget feedback and then the priorities review.
