IV. Discussion Items

- a. Discussion Item 1: School Plan and Review. We simply reviewed the five-year plan that can be adjusted. Looked at the SMART goals. We also looked at incidents due to restorative practices and discussed at risk students

- b. Discussion Item 2: Data Discussion. Dr. Mitchell discussed milestone (American Lit, Algebra I, Biology, and U.S History) data for 9th grade, 10th grade, 11th grade that was broken down by domain. We Compared graduation rate over the last four year and was reminded to keep in mind transfer students, drop out students but over all the average did go up. Glows vs. Grows

Shepard: Recognized the group who did not test, and how astonished she is by growth

Wismer: Noticed gains in the numbers but wanted to close the gaps in red.

Quigley: Pointed out the growth that we don't talk about, and we are still making gains even if not discussed. (Example. Students who test 20% the first time and maybe 40% the second time)

- c. Discussion Item 3: Strategic plan Douglas discussed survey use during advisement WCI. Went over data analysis and protocol, CCRPI content, CCRPI graduation rate, and college and career readiness.

(Discussion item 2 was brought back up during discussion 3)

Wismer: Brought up verbiage use on the test and the effects she has seen. Quigley answered the question about the differences. She also mentioned she would like the test sooner. Douglas made it known that the district is aware of the issues concerning the test. Julia as a student agreed the verbiage is frustrating.

- d. Discussion Item 4: Strategic Plan update
- e. Optional School Uniform: ALL members opposed school uniforms; no further action needed in establishing a school uniform advisory committee.

V. Information Items

- a. Principal's Report Current number of students is 2,364 at NAHS, an increase by 3 students since August's meeting. 100% of the teachers' positions are filled. The school still needs one hall monitor. Also discussed baseball field update and new bleachers being added. School did hire a new men's basketball coach, Mrs. Wells. The school also added two school surveys to discuss what is truly happening

VI. Announcements November 7th Super Attendant come to NAHS
